FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Peace in the Midst of Chaos

Dear Friends,

It has been a beautiful day! I'm in my home office, where the wall in front of me is all windows, one of which is open. I can hear the gentle breeze blowing the fading leaves of the red maple out front, and the warm afternoon sun is shining on me and my desk. There are trees rustling in the distance, and every now and then I hear a chirping bird. Add to this peacefulness the fact that it's been a very productive day, and I have to say, September 22 goes down as an A+ kind of day! Now to get ready for fall.

One of my favorite parts of October is the crispness of the air. There's something refreshing about stepping outside and drawing in a deep breath of autumn air—cool, clear, and grounding. It's nature's time of transition with leaves changing colors, the air whispers of change. The season itself seems to invite us to pause, to breathe, to remember the goodness of God.

And yet, beyond the beauty of fall, we cannot ignore the chaos of much busier schedules at home, school, and work. Our lives may feel pretty chaotic at times, full of noise, responsibility, and worry. And the world outside of our day to day lives feels pretty chaotic these days too, with conflict and division, shootings that have come close to home, and more.

In seasons like these, it is tempting to feel overwhelmed, or even to believe that chaos will have the final word. That's why I'm so thankful for my A+ day. It reminds me that there is peace in the chaos, that Jesus tells us, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." (John 14:27a). That peace is our deep assurance that even when the world trembles, God remains steadfast.

As people of faith, our response to the world's chaos is not despair but hope, not fear but trust, not indifference but love in action. Like the turning leaves, we can let go of what weighs us down and let God's Spirit renew us. Like the cool autumn breeze, we can breathe deeply of God's grace and share it freely with others.

This October, I invite you to create intentional moments of peace. Step outside and notice the beauty. Pick up a fallen leaf and explore it's beauty. Take a breath of the fresh air and give thanks. Let God's Spirit calm your anxious heart. And when the noise of the world grows too loud, may you hear instead the still, small voice of the One who promises never to leave us nor forsake us.

In the words of the prophet Isaiah, "You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you" (Isaiah 26:3). May this be our witness as a church community—people who, even in times of chaos, reflect the peace of Christ and offer hope to the world.

With gratitude and peace,

Rev. Lee Atherton

FOR YOUR CALENDAR

BLESSING THE ANIMALS

Sunday, October 12 at 2:00 PM

Fall is a wonderful season to celebrate the beauty of God's creation, and what better way than to gather with our beloved pets and animal companions for a special Blessing of the Animals! On Sunday, October 12 at 2:00 PM, we will meet outdoors at Carson Park (Fellowship Hall if there's rain or cold) to give thanks for the joy, comfort, and unconditional love that animals bring into our lives.

All are welcome—whether you are a longtime member, a neighbor from the community, or simply someone who loves animals. Bring your dogs, cats, rabbits, hamsters, birds, turtles, or even a favorite stuffed animal. If your pet is shy or unable to travel, feel free to bring a photo or a special toy as a symbol of their presence.

In this short and joyful service, we'll lift up prayers of gratitude, honor the bond we share with creation, and ask God's blessing on the animals who share our homes and hearts. It's a wonderful opportunity for fellowship, a chance to meet neighbors, and a time to celebrate God's love made visible in fur, feathers, and fins. Invite your friends, family, and anyone you know who treasures their animal companions. Together, let's give thanks for the creatures who teach us so much about loyalty, joy, and love. We hope to see you—and your furry, feathered, or scaly friends—on October 12!

CCC MOVIE GROUP

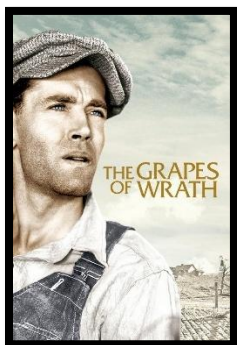

Mondays | October 13 & 27 | 7:00 PM | Zoom

The CCC Movie Group is open to all! Watch the movie(s) on your own, then join the group on Zoom at 7:00 pm on "Movie Mondays" to discuss. Please contact Lynn Horton (lynn@terpsoft.com) for the Zoom link, if you have questions, or if you have difficulty accessing the movies!

Monday, 10/13 – “The Sting” (1973) Set in 1936, this American caper film involves a complicated plot by two professional grifters (Paul Newman and Robert Redford) to con a mob boss (Robert Shaw). The film was directed by George Roy Hill, who had directed Newman and Redford in “Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid” (1969). The screenplay, by David S. Ward, was inspired by real-life cons perpetrated by brothers Fred and Charley Gondorff and documented by David Maurer in his 1940 book “The Big Con: The Story of the Confidence Man.” The film plays out in sections introduced by old-fashioned title cards, drawn by artist Jaroslav "Jerry" Gebr in a style reminiscent of the Saturday Evening

Post. It is noted for its use of ragtime music, particularly the melody "The Entertainer" by Scott Joplin, which was adapted (along with other Joplin pieces) for the film by Marvin Hamlisch, producing a Billboard-topping soundtrack and a top-10 single. The film's success created a resurgence of interest in Joplin's work. Released on Christmas Day of 1973, “The Sting” was a critical and commercial success and hugely successful at the 46th Academy Awards, where it won seven of its 10 Oscar nominations, including Best Picture, Best Director, Best Film Editing and Best Original Screenplay; Redford was also nominated for Best Actor. The film rekindled Newman's career after a series of big-screen flops. Regarded by the Writers Guild of America as having one of the best screenplays ever written, “The Sting” was selected in 2005 for preservation in the U.S. National Film Registry of the Library of Congress as being "culturally, historically, or aesthetically significant."

Monday, 10/27 – “The Grapes of Wrath” (1940) Directed by John Ford, this American drama was based on John Steinbeck's 1939 Pulitzer Prize-winning novel of the same name. The film tells the story of the Joads, an Oklahoma family of sharecroppers, who, after losing their farm to drought and increased mechanization during the Great Depression in the 1930s, become migrant workers, and end up in California. The motion picture details their arduous journey across the United States as they travel to California in search of work and opportunities for the family members, facing numerous obstacles along the way, including the Dust Bowl and the harsh realities of capitalism. The film's cast includes Henry Fonda as Tom Joad and Jane Darwell as Ma Joad, the role for which she won the Academy Award for Best Supporting Actress. (John Ford won for Best Director.) “The Grapes of Wrath” is widely considered to be one of the greatest films of all time. In 1989, it was one of the first 25 films selected by the Library of Congress for preservation in the United States National Film Registry for being "culturally, historically, or aesthetically significant." The novel and film explore themes of human perseverance, oppression, and the impact of capitalism on the lives of the migrant workers. The title "Grapes of Wrath" is derived from a phrase in the Battle Hymn of the Republic, symbolizing the anger and discontent of the oppressed.

KiSeLo – KINDNESS, SERVICE, LOVE

Wednesday, October 22 | 12:30 PM | Fellowship Hall

It's hard to believe that summer is gone and we have welcomed autumn. As the days are getting shorter, we are reminded that winter is only a few short months away. We sure have enjoyed September! The warm days and cool nights, the beautiful colors of the leaves, the children and choir back in church, and our first meeting of the new year.

Thanks to all that donated their favorite dish at the potluck luncheon. Everything was delicious! KiSeLo also donated the worship service flowers on September 14 in honor of Mary Harrison's 100th birthday, and they were delivered to her after the service.

Next Meeting

The next KiSeLo meeting will be held October 22. We will meet in the Fellowship Hall at 12:30 for a short business meeting.

Our program committee has planned an exciting trip to the Whistler House. We will leave here as soon as the business meeting ends and we will be carpooling as parking is limited at the Whistler House. We should be on the road no later than 1:00 PM.

Join KiSeLo

All the gals of CCC are welcome to join KiSeLo. We have an exciting program planned for this year and for $10 you can become a member.

Open Pantry Support

KiSeLo has been supporting the Open Pantry for several years through our monthly donations. For October we asking the members to donate canned stew, or any non-perishable food item. We will not say no to any church member who would also like to make a donation of stew.

CE COMMITTEE

Happy Fall From Your CE Committee!

What a wonderful “Welcome Back Sunday” - so many young people together smiling in fellowship; it is always wonderful to see those smiling faces after the summer. It’s amazing how much the little ones grow over the summer months. We continued our tradition of blessing the backpacks where we send the youth into the challenges and triumphs of the school year with our prayers and support.

The CE Committee was excited to again host the church's traditional Welcome Back hot dog picnic. The Naish and McCarthy families again led the essential behind-the-scenes picnic coordinating. The rain poured down, but that did not dampen the spirits of those who had the privilege of petting all those cute animals at the petting zoo. Who knew we could accommodate goats on our stage? And how adorable were those loppy-eared rabbits?

We celebrated the second half of Welcome Sunday, the following week when the sun shone and we were able to appreciate the bouncy house along with some ice cream. It was a gorgeous day to celebrate both the young people and the church’s support of the Down East Maine Mission.

CONFIRMATION EXPLORATION GROUP LAUNCHES!

We are excited to tell you that this year’s Confirmation Exploration Group is off to a fabulous start! We have six participants, six mentors, and a few other helpers along the way. Don’t be surprised if someone asks you on your way out of worship, “Why do you come to worship?”

Have you ever wondered what type of wood or tools were used for Jesus’ cross? How tall was it? How heavy was it? We’ll explore those details and make a cross that we can carry to feel a bit of what Jesus experienced.

In the winter and spring, we’ll make banners to hang in the sanctuary. And on May 17th we’ll celebrate Pentecost and Confirm our young folks.

We hope you’ll do all you can to support our teens as they explore their faith, what it means to be confirmed, and make their own decision on being Confirmed. Watch for details on how you can support everyone in the group.

PUB THEOLOGY: FAITH, FRIENDS & FRESH CONVERSATION

Tuesday, October 14 at 7:00 PM – Location TBA

What happens when good people, good questions, and good conversation come together over a pint?
You get Pub Theology!

On Tuesday, October 14 at 7:00 PM, we're launching our very first Pub Theology gathering—and you're invited! We'll meet at a local pub (location to be announced soon) for an evening of relaxed, open conversation about life, faith, current events, and the big (and small) questions that matter most.

No sermons. No homework. No pressure. No judgment. Just honest dialogue, curious minds, and a welcoming space where all perspectives are encouraged. Whether you take your beverage with hops, bubbles, or lemon wedges, you'll find good company and a chance to connect in meaningful ways.

So, bring a friend, bring your questions, and pull up a chair. Let's share a pint and some wisdom as we discover together what faith looks like in everyday life.

Stay tuned for the location announcement—and get ready for an evening where laughter, conversation, and maybe even a little holy mischief are on tap! Childcare will be provided by the Christian Education Committee from 6:30 – 8:30 PM.

Cheers,
Pastor Lee

PRAYER MINISTRY

As we know, prayer is simply having a conversation with the One who loves us more, understands us better, and cares more for us than anyone else in our lives does. Prayer is comprised of both talking with God and listening to God. Words are not important because God reads our hearts and spirits. God knows our thoughts and wishes, even the innermost groaning of our being - our disappointments, fears, and hurts - before we know them ourselves. During prayer, we open ourselves (and those for whom we pray) to God's healing grace, mercy, and love. Prayer is powerful!

If you believe in the power of prayer and would like to participate in this ministry of our church, or if you would like to offer up a person or situation about which you would like for members to join you in prayer, please contact Marcia Cassidy: marciacassidy@comcast.net.

Submitted by Shirley Zachry

LET'S CELEBRATE!

Bailey Burglund and Catherine Smith will join their hands and hearts in holy matrimony on October 18. Keep them in your prayers! Bailey grew up in CCC and it is a joy to welcome her and Cat back to our sanctuary for such a special occasion.

IF I WERE TO.... WHAT WOULD YOU WANT?

A Note From Pastor Lee

I am very much enjoying using my additional time with you to bring more community events, meditation, scripture study, and much more. If I were to offer a Bible study, which book of the Bible would you want to explore? Or what topic would be meaningful to dig into?

- If I were to offer a book study, what book or topic would you like to read?
- What days and times are good for you to gather? Do you want in person, zoom, or hybrid?

Please email or call Pastor Lee with your answers! She'd love to hear from you by October 12. 😊

DIACONATE FUNDS ANNOUNCEMENT

The diaconate administers two funds: the Communion & Good Samaritan Fund and the Richard B. Knight Memorial Gift Card Fund.

Communion & Good Samaritan Fund

The Communion & Good Samaritan Fund is used for buying communion supplies like the cups and to provide one-time services for those in need as identified by the pastor and the Deacons. One example in recent years was to help someone with critical car repairs. If you would like to contribute to the Communion & Good Samaritan Fund, you can put your check in the pew Communion envelope or write Communion Fund in your check's memo line.

Richard B. Knight Memorial Gift Card Fund

The Richard B. Knight Memorial Gift Card Fund was established recently per instructions from Pastor Rich. As I mentioned in a service a couple of weeks ago, we have been distributing four $50 Market Basket gift cards per month so there is definitely a big need out there. Peggy has been tracking who gets a card and people have to wait three months between receiving one. You may have read her wonderful profiles of a few recipients. If you would like to contribute to the Richard B. Knight Memorial Gift Card Fund, you can write Pastor Rich Gift Card Fund in your check's memo line.

Thanks for reading and for your generosity,
Lillian Bean, Diaconate Treasurer

COUNCIL CORNER

A Monthly Update on the Activity of the CCC Council

News from the September 10, 2025 Meeting:

- Treasurer Dick Papenfuss reported that we are starting our new 2025-2026 fiscal year with strong pledging. July and August pledge income is slightly ahead of budget at 17%. (Year-to-date target is 16.67%.) Let's keep it going! Overall income is on target at 15%. YTD expenditures are also on track at 16% of budget. Some notable issues are the new electricity supplier not crediting our solar-generated electricity, and so there has been a cost for electricity usage. Dick Papenfuss is working to straighten this out with the new company. The water bill has also been exceeding budget due to a leaky faucet that has been discovered in the utility closet sink. The faucet will be repaired or replaced. The church insurance package is higher than budgeted, as insurance rates are increasing nationally. Committee expenses are minimal at this point in the year.
- The Trustees are reviewing office copier costs and seeking to identify why the expenses ran so far above budget last year. All committees and church groups that use the copier, or have Peggy make copies on their behalf, are requested to think before copying. Ask yourself, "Is a paper copy necessary? Can this document be printed in black and white? Is the setting of the copier correct for the copy job?" Each color copy costs 10x what a basic b+w copy costs. The Council approved a suggestion by the Trustees that a guideline for copier use be distributed to church committees. A special code to identify committees may also be instituted. Thank you to Trustee Virginia Crocker Timmins for taking the lead on this review. Thank you as well to Patrick Shields for his study of the copier usage statistics.
- Bonnie McGrath, Safe Church Administrator, Pastor Lee, Jennifer Delikat, Jennifer Hart, and Samantha Shields have all been involved in reviewing the CCC Safe Church Policy to be sure it is up-to-date and aligns with church insurance requirements. A task force will continue to review the policy and will bring recommended revisions to the Council at a future meeting.
- Ana Reátiga was elected to an open 2-year term on the Social Action and Missions Ministry.
- The Council approved a request by Lynn Horton to have the option for the church to host a craft fair on Saturday, December 6. Outreach by the Communications Committee will help assess if potential craft vendors would be interested in participating. This event would be in addition to our traditional Holiday Fair held on Saturday, November 22.
- The 150th anniversary of the founding of Central Congregational Church in Chelmsford is upcoming in 2026! The official date of our organization is April 13, 1876. Events and celebrations will be held throughout the year. Council will create a special CCC 150 Committee; volunteers are invited to contact Lynn Horton or Val King.
- Transition Team member Glenn Dissinger reported that the CCC profile has been fully approved and is now posted on the Conference website!
- The Capital Campaign Celebration Dinner will be held in Fellowship Hall on Saturday, October 25. Volunteers are needed to help run the event; please contact Christine Williams.
- The Community Yard Sale held on August 16 in Fellowship Hall raised $876.25 for CCC!

- Pastor Lee and Sunday School Coordinator Jennifer Hart are planning monthly fellowship events for church families and friends.
- A reminder to all committees to post their committee meeting dates and other activities on the church calendar, and to submit Council reports to Peggy no later than 8:00 AM on the Tuesday before the Council Zoom. Thank you!
