Opening Prayer & the Lord’s Prayer		Dory
There is none like you, God of infinite patience. You promise to listen to us. You speak more words of hope and grace and offer more acts of mercy than we can count on the fingers and toes of every person who ever lived. Gathering up all the words we should never have spoken, you rearrange them into stories of peace and reconciliation. Sweeping up the messes we leave littered behind us, you recycle them into gifts that soften the hardest hearts. So come now, Holy One. Be present among us as we gather in your name. Breathe your Spirit into this place—into our prayers and our songs, into our listening and our speaking, into our hopes and our weariness. Gather us as we are, and send us from this place renewed—ready to serve, ready to love, ready to walk the path of peace you set before us. We pray as Jesus taught us, saying, - “Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us, not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.”

Pastoral Prayer
Prayer for Transformation and New Life	Gracious and loving God, hear our prayer. We know we do not always live as we ought: We turn away from you, from our neighbor, and from our true selves. We know we dim your light within us, with our pride, our self-righteousness, and our need for control. We know that you love us, that you do not abandon us, and that again and again you call us back to you, back to love, back to grace, back to your light. Forgive us, we pray, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
Assurance of God’s Grace

Invitation to Offering	Dory
Offertory	“Lead Me Lord” by Becker arr. Hayes	Chancel Choir
Blessed are the poor in spirit, longing for their Lord, for God’s coming kingdom shall be theirs. Blessed are the sorrowing, for they shall be consoled, and the meek shall come to rule the world.
Refrain: Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord, by the light of truth to seek and to find the narrow way. Be my way; be my truth; be my life, my Lord, and lead me, Lord, today.
Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs, and the pure in heart shall see their God. Blest are they whose hunger only holiness can fill, for I say they shall be satisfied. Refrain
Blest are they who through their lifetimes sow the seeds of peace, all will call them children of the Lord. Blest are you, though persecuted in your holy life, for in heaven, great is your reward. Refrain.

The Gospel According to Pixar: Exploring Faith through Film

Stories have a way of reaching us where lectures sometimes can't—through imagination, emotion, and wonder. Many of us have experienced that kind of storytelling through Pixar films, which speak not only to children, but to the deep places in adults as well.

This winter, I'm exploring the possibility of forming a small discussion group around the book The Gospel According to Pixar, written by Todd Brewer and David Zahl. The book looks at familiar Pixar movies through a theological lens, uncovering themes of grace, loss, hope, belonging, and redemption—often in surprising and deeply meaningful ways.

This would be a movie exploration group, where, together, we would watch selected Pixar films (either on our own or possibly together) and gather for conversation, reflection, and connection. No theological background required—just curiosity and a willingness to reflect on how faith shows up in unexpected places.

At this point, I'm simply gauging interest. If enough people would like to participate, a group will form, and we'll choose a day and time that works best for most.

If this sounds like something you'd enjoy, please reach out to Pastor Lee to let me know of your interest. Your response will help determine whether—and how—this group takes shape.

Sometimes wisdom arrives wrapped in animated stories. Let's see what light we might discover together.

HYMN LYRICS

Hymn

“Beloved Community”

Beloved community of God, in vision seen, a perfect whole;
all that we have we pledge to thee, our pow'rs of body, mind, and soul.

The healthy frame, the steady nerve, the active pulse of flesh and blood, with these we dedicate to thee our passion and our personhood.

All gains of skill and fruits of thought, whate'er we know, whate'er we feel, humbly we bring that we may prove true servants of the common weal.

Fair visions of the good and true wrought into speech and kindly deed, these be our sacrament of love, our witness to the Christly creed.

King of the kingdom of our dreams, from dreams we turn to take our part in that beloved community where love is law in every heart.

Hymn

“We Shall Overcome”

We shall overcome, we shall overcome,
we shall overcome someday!

Refrain:

Oh, deep in my heart I do believe
we shall overcome someday!

The Lord will see us through ... some day

We'll walk hand in hand ... some day!

We are not afraid ... today!

The truth shall make us free ... today!

We shall live in peace ... some day!

Closing Hymn

“My Life Flows On”

My life flows on in endless song, above earth's lamentation.
I hear the clear, though far-off hymn that hails a new creation.

Refrain:

No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that Rock I'm clinging.
Since love is Lord of heav'n and earth, how can I keep from singing?

Through all the tumult and the strife, I hear that music ringing.
It finds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing? [Refrain]

What though my joys and comforts die? I know my Savior liveth.
What though the darkness gather round? Songs in the night he giveth. [Refrain]

The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a fountain ever springing!
All things are mine since I am his! How can I keep from singing? [Refrain]
